Faultless Fitting Shoes

You'll know them
by the trade mark stamped on every pair

Correct in every detail

SHOES are such an important item of your wardrobe —they must be smart and good-looking to be fit company for the new spring frocks and suits; but unless they are comfortable you can't really enjoy their trim stylishness.

In Dorothy Dodd shoes you'll find ultra-smart style expressed with that quiet good taste every well-dressed woman demands, together with the luxurious comfort which only expertly designed, faultless-fitting shoes can give you.

And to your pleasure in their beauty and comfort will be added delight in their very real economy—for the Dorothy Dodd trade mark is the symbol of superior quality of materials and workmanship as well as of correct style and faultless fit at all times.

This typically smart and faultless-fitting oxford on your foot will give you all the pleasure of a gem in its proper setting.
